

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ANDREA WOOD,
Plaintiff,

v.

CONTRA COSTA COUNTY,
Defendant.

Case No. 21-cv-00611-MMC

ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFF'S REQUEST FOR TWO-MONTH STAY

Before the Court is a letter from plaintiff Andrea Wood, dated May 15, 2021, and filed by the Clerk of Court on May 17, 2021. In the letter, plaintiff states she "requires (two) surgery [sic]" and "will not be able to respond for 60 days." Having read and considered the letter, which the Court construes as a request for a two-month stay of all proceedings in the instant action,¹ the Court hereby rules as follows.

By order filed March 18, 2021, in which the Court granted Wood an extension of time to file a document, the Court stated "[n]o further motions for extension of time will be granted in the absence of a declaration under penalty of perjury, setting forth good cause for the relief sought." (See Order, filed March 18, 2021, at 1:27-28.)

Plaintiff did not file a declaration in support of the instant request. Moreover, although Wood attached to her letter a one-page printout from what appears to be Wood's medical records, the attachment makes no reference to any surgical procedure or otherwise indicates why a stay is warranted.

Accordingly, plaintiff's request is hereby DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
